Garden Tour & Lunch
David Austin
Rose Garden
Albrighton

In the early 1950s David Austin set out to create a more beautiful rose. Sixty years on, this simple objective remains. From a hobby breeder as a young teenager David Austin has gone on to breed a collection of roses renowned across the world. Rose breeding is often described as being as much an art as a science.

All David Austin roses have a collective style and reflect one man's vision. His roses have beautiful blooms and in most cases wonderful fragrance held on graceful attractive shrubs. A garden of these outstanding roses is hard to beat for sheer exuberance of flower and fragrance. Today, David Austin Roses remains a family business. David has been joined by his son David and his grandson, Richard.

Lunch will be served on arrival in the garden marquee and afterwards we will be invited to view the glorious display of container-grown David Austin roses. This will be followed by a guided tour of the 2 acre gardens, with over 700 different varieties of roses to feast your eyes and nose on. After the tour refreshments, will be served and you will have time to walk around the plant centre which holds the largest collection of roses in the country.

Please be aware garden routes are over grassed areas so may be uneven, and tours will continue during wet weather. We advise wearing suitable footwear and clothing for your day.
