Freddie Fox, Frances Barber and Edward Fox

star in Oscar Wilde's glittering comedy

Set in London in 1895, this satirical drama about political corruption, blackmail, scandal-loving journalists and the pitfalls of holding public figures to higher standards than the rest of us, displays Wilde's most sparkling wit and sharp humour in a feast for both the ear and the eye.

An Ideal Husband revolves around the lives of two men, successful political figure Sir Robert Chiltern and his charming, irresponsible friend Lord Arthur Goring.

Sir Robert's life is picture perfect thanks to both his loving and brilliant wife Gertrude and witty sister Mabel. Goring's life is one of lounging, flirting with Mabel, and avoiding his father's instance that he should marry.

The world of these two men is turned upside down by the arrival of an old acquaintance Mrs. Laura Cheveley, who has come with blackmail in mind. Sir Robert turns to his friend for assistance who knows the lady of old, and, for him, takes the whole thing very seriously.
