Welsh National Opera

The Magic Flute Mozart

Culture Vultures | Sunday Opera Trip

4.00pm Wales Millennium Centre, Cardiff

The mysterious Queen of the Night coaxes Tamino to rescue her beautiful daughter Pamina from the grip of the evil enchanter Sarastro. With a magic flute and a set of magic bells for protection he sets off on his journey aided by Papageno, the bird-catcher. But as they overcome a series of challenges, it becomes apparent that all is not what it seems – will they complete their quest and find true love?

Welsh National Opera's irresistible production transports you to a dream world Combined with a witty story, moments of enchantment and Mozart's sublime music, including the magnificent Queen of the Night aria, this production adds up to an unforgettable opera experience for all ages. Sung in English, with English and Welsh surtitles.
